

Bloemfontein Weather Office
Bram Fischer Int. Airport
Mazelspoort Road
Bloemfontein
9300

E-Mail: fablfc@weathersa.co.za
Tel: 051 433 2301

Likelihood	High	2
	Medium
	Low
	Very Low
		Minimal	Minor	Significant	Severe
Impact

IMPACT BASED WARNING issue :10:17 on Sat 06 Dec 2025

LEVEL 2 for Severe Thunderstorms

WARNING valid Sat 06 Dec 16:00 Until Sun 07 Dec 15:59

Affected DM / LM / Metro area

Dihlabeng, Dikgatlong, Gamagara, Ga-Segonyana, Greater Taung, Joe Morolong, Kgatelopele, Kopanong, Lekwa-Teemane, Letsemeng, Mafube, Magareng, Maluti a Phofung, Mamusa, Mangaung, Mangaung - Naledi, Mangaung - Wepener, Mantsopa, Maquassi Hills, Masilonyana, Matjhabeng, Metsimaholo, Mohokare, Moqhaka, Nala, Ngwathe, Nketoana, Phokwane, Phumelela, Setsoto, Sol Plaatjie, Tokologo, Tswelopele

Short Message

resulting in heavy downpours, flooding of susceptible roads, low lying areas and bridges as well as damages to infrastructure are expected over the south-western parts of North West, the north-eastern parts of Northern Cape, as well as most parts of Free State today and tomorrow.

Discussion

Conditions favorable for the development of severe thunderstorms are expected over the south-western parts of North West, the north-eastern parts of Northern Cape, as well as most parts of Free State today and tomorrow.

Impacts

Localised damage to infrastructure, settlements (informal), property, vehicles, livelihood and livestock.
Localised disruption of municipal and other essential services.
Localised loss of agricultural production.
Large amounts of small hail over an open area.

Instruction

Do not attempt to cross swollen streams. Keep an eye on the SAWS website for any updates regarding flooding development. Load Weather Smart APP, scroll to last page and use two fingers to navigate storm tracking application.